January 2019
Ministry of Dr. Dianne B. Collard

The official Book Signing for "I Choose to Forgive" and the public launch of the film, "Abstraction" was an incredible evening, held at the prestigious Anne Neilson Fine Art Gallery in South Charlotte. It was a joy to celebrate God's goodness and to share his incredible gift of freedom in forgiveness. It was truly an evening to remember! To God be the Glory!

The Holidays

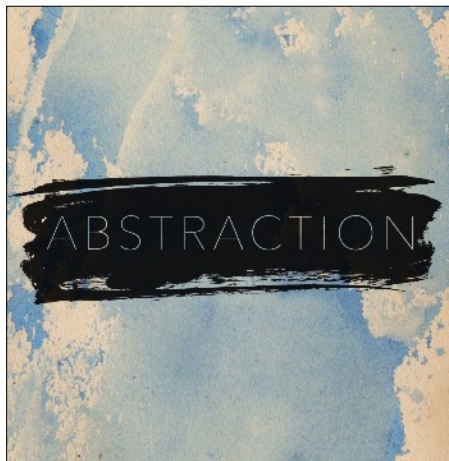

We had a delightful Christmas with our extended family (and the parents of our new son-in-law!). It was, as always, a blessing to be together.

The New Year's holiday was quiet and enjoyable for just Glenn and I to enjoy as we recalled God's faithfulness in 2018 and prayed for His direction in 2019.

The A.C.T.-Europe/

Ukraine/Israel Staff I am privileged to encourage are serving God through a variety of creative gifts: visual arts, music, worship leading, dance, drama, teaching, journalism, orphan care and so much more. Continue to pray for these gifted, dedicated people. Because of security reasons, I cannot be more specific—but I'm so proud of working with them and they do need your prayers and support.

Pray for my regular Skype and phone chats with these people in order to hear about their ministry and personal needs and praying with them.

ArtsCharlotte's Busy Calendar

The New Year began with the launch of our new "Stage & Film Community"—with two major events. The "Visual Arts Community" is scheduling monthly meetings to encourage visual artists in our community. We have a "Gathering" planned for February to discuss how artists can facilitate forgiveness & reconciliation in our city. I continue to have personal meetings with individual artists. Remember, we exist to "Nurture the soul of the city through the arts."
