Introducing Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Garrick

The joining of two godly young people, both from godly families is a joy to behold. Kendra is our first granddaughter to marry and we were thrilled to witness this event. It was held in an old cotton mill that had the feeling of an ancient European cathedral inside. The ceremony was traditional but the reception was a celebration of cultures—all representing the bride's family history. We had food, music and dancing from America, Albania and Austria. Ben and Kendra now live in Birmingham, Alabama where Ben is in medical school and Kendra is working in the medical profession. Join with us in prayer for this special couple.

Prayer & Praise

- Our trip to the A.C.T. Intl Staff Gathering was very productive. Great to meet with others using their creative gifts to serve the Lord.
- ArtsCharlotte served as prayer support and facilitated the success of the Lòrien Academy of the Arts fund raiser and the speaking engagement of Marcy Gregg.
- Our friends in Paradise, CA are praising God for protecting their lives, in spite of losing their home and all their belongings. So many are in need due to the fire.
- Sharing Abstraction at the Barnabas Group breakfast on 05 December. ArtsCharlotte will work with them in the new year as one of their chosen ministries.

will praise
you, Lord my God, with all my heart; I will glorify your name forever.
Ps. 86:12*

Several members of the Core Team have exhibitions and special events of their art during this season. I am so proud of each of them and it is a pleasure to work with such godly artists.
