

LABYRINTH

"A theologian who does not love art, poetry, music and nature can be dangerous. Blindness and deafness toward the beautiful are not incidental; they necessarily are reflected in his theology."
- Benedict XVI

Glorifying God, Magnifying the Image of Christ, Living in Hope, and Encouraging Others

Twenty-seven years after God's call that I "find and encourage artists," I was able to return to Vienna and speak at the ArtsBrunch. It was so meaningful to recall all that God has done to fulfill this calling.

A MEANINGFUL TRIP TO VIENNA FOR US

I had two speaking engagements and attended meetings of Arts+Europe. Glenn and I also spent 4 days recalling the goodness of God since those terrible days of deep grief when we lived there. So grateful.

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE GATHERING ON 07 NOVEMBER

Artists of all genres will contribute to the dialogue about "Beauty from Brokenness." It will be a very enjoyable and powerful night!

DUKE UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE

The "Theology and the Arts" conference in early September was intellectually challenging and spiritually refreshing, thanks to Jeremy Begbie & N.T. Wright.

I AM SCHEDULING MINISTRY ENGAGEMENTS FOR 2020. PLEASE CONTACT ME SOON.

"Lamentation" by Caspar de Crayer at the Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna

God used this painting to speak healing into my deep grief in 1992 and it was wonderful to experience it again last month.
