Christmas is the celebration of the Incarnation.

I love this depiction of the Nativity scene because it so clearly emphasizes the humanity of Mary and Joseph, as well as the baby Jesus. It amazes me that God would choose to become a human baby in order to become our Savior. Madeleine L'Engle writes, "Christ, the Second Person of the Trinity, Christ, the Maker of the universe. . . willingly and lovingly leaving all that power and coming to this poor, sin-filled planet to live with us for a few years to show us what we ought to be and could be. Christ came to us as Jesus of Nazareth, wholly human and wholly divine, to show us what it means to be made in God's image."

May your Christmas be filled with love for Christ and for others. Remember, we celebrate the coming of Immanuel, God with us.

Merry Christmas, Dianne and Glenn

2019

The past year has been filled with opportunities for ministry—both in Europe and in North Carolina. Thank you for your support and prayers. ALL ministry in the lives of scores of people is because of you. The coming year has vast possibilities for reaching more people in many locations—but it won't be possible without your generous support. A.C.T. Int'l staff members throughout Europe need to be visited and encouraged. Invitations for arts and faith conferences have already come from Bulgaria and Poland. ArtsCharlotte has many opportunities. PLEASE consider joining my partners who give monthly, or send a special end-of-year gift. THANK YOU.
