OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE

PRAISE & PRAYER

- * It has been a privilege to meet with many artists, pastors and gallery owners recently. I delight in walking with them on their own life journey. . .one step closer to our Savior.
- * ArtsCharlotte "Gathering" screened our film, Abstraction, and discussed issues around the nexus of art and forgiveness; as well as the topic, beauty from brokenness.
- * I was privileged to screen the film and speak to a high-school homeschool co-op class. I was so impressed with these students!
- * Our daughter, Wendy, is now the Director of Carmel Counseling Center AND she and her husband are establishing the first Christian Counseling Center in Tirana, Albania.
- * The ArtsCharlotte Core Team were so pleased when Charlotte's Mayor publicly expressed appreciation for us for the encouragement we've been this year to her and to our city during her address at Movement Day 2019.
- * Mako Fujimura has become the "producer" of my next book and is working to "re-frame" it by including chapters by an art historian, a theologian and himself. We are still praying for a publisher who will value this book enough to print it with full color photos of abstract art.
- * ArtsCharlotte's Visual Arts Community is growing and is greatly encouraging artists in our region.
- * My Lenten devotional will be published on April 11. Subscribe here.
- * Blessed to have one of the A.C.T. Intl staff members from Kazakhstan with me this week.
- * The "Pilgrimage in the Steps of St. Patrick" (led by Glenn and I) is planned for early May and has twenty "pilgrims." Glenn has sent many articles, poems, songs and books to prepare us well for this special trip.
- * Partnering possibilities with organizations working with homeless & addiction recovery; intellectually disabled; human trafficking recovery; low-income students/upward mobility.
